

FREE ART FRIDAY

12 Days of Giving

Christmas is a happy time of year for most of us - thanks to family, friends, good fun, presents and food - but for many others, it can be very challenging. For many people, Christmas emphasises their daily struggle of going through life without these and other comforts.

Free Art Friday Portsmouth and Southsea has asked artists and contributors, if they would give pieces of art for a prize draw to support the work of Food Cycle Portsmouth and Portsmouth Food Bank.

Food Cycle Portsmouth offers a warm, welcoming space for people from the local community to join them for free, tasty meals.

Portsmouth Food Bank provides emergency food supplies for people in crisis.

Between the 1st - 12th of December, Free Art Friday Portsmouth and Southsea will be hiding pieces of donated art & uniquely designed items around Portsmouth for members of the public to find. You'll find clues to the location of these items posted on our Facebook page:
